

Privacy Policy

This website is operated by Fontus Health Ltd and we take your privacy very seriously. Fontus Health Ltd (“we” or “us”) are a ‘data controller’ for the purposes of General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

This policy explains when and why we collect personal information about you, how this information is used, the conditions under which it may be disclosed to others and how it is kept secure.

This is our main privacy policy. We may provide additional, specific privacy information to you as you interact with us in different ways (e.g. that we will only use certain information for specific purposes). To the extent that if any of that information differs from what we say below, those specific statements will apply in those circumstances.

This policy may change from time to time so please check this page occasionally to ensure that you’re happy with any changes.

This privacy statement was last updated on 23 July 2021.

The Following Information is Provided to Comply with the Requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation

This privacy statement describes why and how we collect and use personal data and provides information about individuals’ rights. It applies to personal data provided to us, both by individuals themselves or by others. If you are providing information on behalf of someone else please ensure that consent to the processing of their personal data is obtained before submitting any information. We may use personal data provided to us for any of the purposes described in this privacy statement or as otherwise stated at the point of collection.

How we Use your Personal Information

The purpose for which personal information is processed may include any or all of the following:

- Verify identity where this is required
- Deliver services and meet legal responsibilities
- Communication by post, email or telephone
- Understand needs and how they may be met
- Maintain records
- Process financial transactions
- Prevent and detect crime, fraud or corruption
- Provide you with suggestions and advice on products, services and how to obtain the most from using our website

- May also need to use data to defend or take legal actions related to the above

Lawful Basis for the Processing

To comply with our legal obligations under statute and other regulatory obligations related to the insolvency process. We also believe we have a legitimate interest in the information being supplied.

What Personal Information we Hold

The categories are: name, address, email address, telephone numbers, date of birth, gender, title, health/medical/disability history and information, GP/Hospital details, online identifiers, recruitment tests and employment history.

Who we Share our Data with

Personal data held by us may be transferred to:

Third party organisations that provide applications/functionality, data processing or IT services to us.

We use third parties to support us in providing our services and to help provide, run and manage our internal IT systems. For example, providers of information technology, cloud based software as a service provider, identity management, website hosting and management, data analysis, data back-up, security and storage services. The servers powering and facilitating that cloud infrastructure are located in secure data centres based in the UK, and personal data may be stored in any one of them.

Third party organisations that otherwise assist us in providing goods, services or information i.e. Auditors and other professional advisers, Law enforcement or other government and regulatory agencies or to other third parties as required by, and in accordance with, applicable law or regulation.

Occasionally, we may receive requests from third parties with authority to obtain disclosure of personal data, such as to check that we are complying with applicable law and regulation, to investigate an alleged crime, to establish, exercise or defend legal rights. We will only fulfil requests for personal data where we are permitted to do so in accordance with applicable law or regulation.

How Long we Retain your Personal Information

We retain personal data for as long as is necessary to achieve the purpose listed above and for any other permissible related purpose. For example, we retain most records until the time limit for claims arising from the activities has expired or otherwise to comply with statutory or regulatory requirements regarding the retention of such records. Records will be retained for a minimum of 6 years.

Where we Store your Personal Information

On occasion, the information you provide to us may be transferred to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA). By way of example, this may happen where any of our servers or those of our third party service providers are from time to time located in a country outside of the EEA. These countries may not have similar data protection laws to the UK. Where possible, we will seek to work with service providers whose servers are located within the EEA.

If we transfer your information outside of the EEA in this way, we will take steps to ensure that appropriate security measures are taken with the aim of ensuring that your privacy rights continue to be protected as outlined in this policy. These steps include imposing contractual obligations on the recipient of your personal information or ensuring that the recipients are subscribed to 'international frameworks' that aim to ensure adequate protection. Please contact us using the details at the end of this policy for more information about the protections that we put in place.

Your Rights

The GDPR provides the following rights for individuals:

- Right to inform
This privacy notice meets our requirement to inform you of our processing of your data.
- Access to personal data
You have a right of access to personal data held by us as a data controller. This right may be exercised by contacting us at Fontus Health Ltd, 60 Lichfield Street, Walsall WS4 2BX, Telephone: 0121 661 4615, Email: info@fontushealth.com. We will aim to respond to any requests for information promptly, and in any event within one month.
- Amendment of personal data
To update personal data submitted to us, you may email us at info@fontushealth.com or, where appropriate, contact us via the relevant website registration page or by amending the personal details held on relevant applications with which you registered.
- Rights that do not apply in these particular circumstances
Not all of the rights under the GDPR are available as one of the reasons we are holding your data is on the basis of it being a legal obligation and therefore the right to erasure, data portability and to object do not apply.

Right to Withdraw Consent

In some circumstances you may be entitled to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal information (where processing your personal information was based on your consent). If you would like to exercise your rights please get in touch with us using the contact details below.

Changes to our Privacy Statement

We keep this privacy statement under regular review and will place any updates on our website. Paper copies of the privacy statement may also be obtained by writing to us at Fontus Health Ltd, 60 Lichfield Street, Walsall WS4 2BX.

This privacy statement was last updated on 23 July 2021.

Complaints

Should you want to complain about our use of personal data, please contact us either at Fontus Health Ltd, 60 Lichfield Street, Walsall WS4 2BX, by Telephone: 0121 661 4615, or Email: info@fontushealth.com

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") (the UK data protection regulator). For further information on your rights and how to complain to the ICO, please refer to the <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/raising-concerns/>

Who Provided the Personal Data

The personal data we have used to contact you was provided by the company/individual (or persons acting on their behalf) on whose instructions we are acting or in relation to which our insolvency practitioner has been appointed. We also access information from the Registrar of Companies and other similar public-access data providers.

Cookies Used by this Website

Like many other websites, our website uses cookies (including Google Analytics cookies) to obtain an overall view of visitor habits and visitor volumes to our website. 'Cookies' are small pieces of information sent to your computer or device and stored on its hard drive to allow our websites to recognise you when you visit.

It is possible to switch off cookies by setting your browser preferences. For more information on how we use cookies and how to switch them off on your device, please visit our Cookies Policy.

Our Use of Marketing

We may collect and process your preferences to receive marketing information directly from us by email, our website or sample requests.

If you place an order with us for a product or service, we may contact you with marketing information in the ways mentioned in the notices presented to you as part of that transaction, except where you indicate you prefer otherwise.

We may use a third party to provide us with re-marketing services from time to time. We will only share your information with our third-party partners for them to contact you directly with marketing information about their products and services where you have indicated.

Changes to this Policy

We may review this policy from time to time and any changes will be notified to you by posting an updated version on our website. We recommend you regularly check for changes and review this policy whenever you visit our website. If you do not agree with any aspect of the updated policy you must immediately notify us and cease using our services.
